THE OFFICIALS NEWSLETTER TEAM

The 2023 Las Vegas F1 Officials Newsletter team consists of Ron Searle, photographer and design layout, photograhers Pablo Matamoros and Randy Jones, and editor Lynne Huntting. Ron, a retired Exxon chemical engineer, hails from Houston, via Australia and has worked on most COTA issues, both Miami issues, and is also a long-time member of the Australian Officials Gazette team. Pablo, an educator, comes from St, Paul via Chile and has been with the COTA team for eight years and both Miami years. Randy, a Purchasing Agent, comes from Petaluma CA and this is his second issue. Lynne, a retired Child Welfare Worker and now free-lance journo, comes from San Francisco and started the COTA newsletter in 2012. She started the Miami Newsletter in 2022 and the Australian Gazette in 1997.

MARSHAL AWARD

AlphaTauri F1 driver, Daniel Ricciardo presented the Marshal Award to representatives of the Clark County Fire Department during the Pre-Race Ceremonies for the Formula 1 Heineken Silver Las Vegas Grand Prix 2023. The Fire Department has been working with the LVGP Chief Medical Officer Dr. Gregg Summerville, for the past year training and learning the ropes of supporting a Grand Prix. Sunday Race Week they had an all-day training session, from Extrication to treatment and all that goes in-between. For the event, they provided ten Medical carts, staffed by doctors and paramedics, and supplied with all the appropriate extrication and medical equipment. A full corps of fire fighters were included.
