PUBLIC COMMENT:

A citizen of Luther brought his concerns to the Board about the Luther area not being plowed out early enough in the day. He would like all roads in the Luther area to be plowed completely before 7am when people have to go to work.

ROAD FOREMAN:

MACDOUGALL –

Just has had the employee out taking care of the roads with the weather we have been getting.

AL –

Thinks everyone did a great job yesterday with the storm that had come through.

VAN DYKE –

Has been dealing with snow and trucks parts. All wings are now on blade trucks since it has now gotten colder.

Mechanics are working hard and doing a great job, weather it be wrenching on trucks or chasing downed trees during these snow events.

ROBINSON -

Attended a surveying class last week, stated that it was a very good class and learned quite a bit of new information.

Has also been working on those estimates for Webber Township for those road projects they are wanting to do in 2026.

OLD BUSINESS:

None.

NEW BUSINESS:

A motion was made by Divis to enter closed session to consider a written attorney opinion exempt from discussion or disclosure by State and Federal statute as permitted by MCL 15.268(h).

Supported by Haslock.
