SITE RESTRICTIONS/INFORMATION:

- Schedule notes: Site access ends nightly at 7:00 pm. Everyone has to be off-site by then (vehicles, trailers, etc can stay but you won't have access to them until gates reopen the next day at 6:30 am). Please be expedient about getting off site in the evenings!!!
- Welcome Party! There will be a welcome party on Friday night in the campground area with pizza and libations. Bring a chair and come hang out with your fellow autocrossers for a bit! If you've attended a welcome party or CCR social before, you're headed to the standard location. If you're joining the party for the first time, you're headed (approximately) toward spot 23 on the flyer below.
 - Please avoid parking in open camping spots (they may be rented) or on the road. There is plenty of overflow parking by the bathhouse/roundabout.
- As mentioned above, you can leave items on site throughout the weekend. Items on site are likely to be safer than items in hotel parking lots.
- Additional parking and permanent bathrooms are available under the dragway grandstands.
- Camping IS NOT allowed on site – there is a campground just outside of the gate
- Alcohol is NOT allowed
- No food on site but there are plenty of options available in the Weddington Rd area (about 1.5 miles away), including OMG Donuts, a Starbucks, a Jack in the Box, Five Guys, and a CookOut (among others).
- The Concord Mills shopping mall is 2.5 miles away and has several other dining options available, including On the Border, Bonefish Grill, Carolina Ale House, Viva Chicken, and several other options.
